rar. Note that the version number here says "Archive-9000", which means it's a download from the Kworld version with the internal serial number 9000. This is the same as version 3.5 in the original release for 9.6. The serial number and "9000" is not in the Kworld file name, so it's easy to miss. Simply try to find and use the batch script installer for the required version to patch your game, which will be much more user-friendly. If you have 3.1 or 3.5 installed from the original release, you don't need to use the Kworld installer. Instead, you can simply use the batch script installer for the required version to patch your game, which will be much more user-friendly.
